

Open Doors Now

Asperger's and High Functioning Autism
Student, Family & Teacher- Education & Support

In conjunction with WESELPA
Open Doors Now presents

The "What Do I Do Now?" Conference

For Parents and Educators of Asperger's/High Functioning Autistic/Similar Students

What is Asp/HFA? – Parenting Special Needs Kids – Keeping Your Family Emotionally Healthy Asperger's From the Inside – Teaching Emotion Control – What Do Dads Need to Know?
How to Include Asp/HFA Kids in General Ed Classrooms – Experienced Teacher Panels
Teaching Social Skills at Elementary, Jr High and High School – Challenges Our Young Adults Face

Speakers will include Program Specialists from WESELPA, Sharon Floyd from ESGV SELPA, experienced teachers from our local schools, Cassie Zupke and Edith Naranjo of Open Doors Now.

Special Keynote speaker: Author Barbara Hambly has published mainstream historical fiction, historical murder mysteries, fantasy, science fiction, comic books, graphic novels, occult romance and scripts for Saturday morning cartoon shows. She writes historical mysteries under her own name and as Barbara Hamilton. She currently teaches History part-time at Pierce College in Woodland Hills. Her interests include historical research, dance, hiking, costuming, Japanese, and videogames.

When: Saturday, October 16th
Registration: 8:15 am – 9:00 am
Conference: 9:00 am – 2:30 pm
Barbara Hambly keynote: 9:00 am

Where: Upland High School
565 W. 11th Street, Upland, Ca. 91786

Cost: $25 per attendee; Boxed lunch included
$40 special Mom & Dad rate; Boxed lunches included
$10 to attend Barbara Hambly keynote speech only

For more information or to register, go to: www.opendoorsnow.org
Para información en Español, llame a Edith Naranjo (909) 730-4500.
English to Spanish translation will be available.

Azusa Pacific University
Inland Empire Regional Center

AUTISM SOCIETY
Improving the Lives of All Affected by Autism
Inland Empire

www.opendoorsnow.org • contact@opendoorsnow.org